MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTORS

Brijesh Shah
(Co-Founder & Director)

Global Colliance was established in 2008 to address the absence of professional and dedicated organisations assisting students in studying abroad. It was founded with the mission of offering expert and complete guidance in the field of overseas education. Our team of experienced and highly qualified counsellors has assisted many students in securing admission to world-renowned institutions in countries like Canada, the UK, the USA, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Dubai and France.

Jay Ruparel
(Co-Founder & Director)

The world has shrunk significantly but India is developing as a significant economic force. Global Colliance is leading in the fastest-growing international education industry. We have showcased our expertise in providing students with thorough knowledge about a variety of courses offered by reputed institutions in various countries. Additionally, we inspire students studying abroad to host exchange visitors, fostering an understanding of diverse cultures and encouraging mutual respect. These students serve as ambassadors for India, contributing to efforts aimed at making the world a better place.

Mary Hiwale
(Partner & Director)

We need to understand that to prepare students for life, we need to teach them more values and academic skills. Global Colliance fulfils this purpose by preparing students from various fields for foreign education. A significant number of our students are now alumni of some of the top foreign universities, with many successfully employed by well-known companies in both India and abroad. These achievements are a testament to the dedicated efforts we invest.

DREAM DESTINATION UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

To study in the USA, any international student needs to have either F-1, J-1 or M-1 visas provided by the US Government.

F-1 Visa

The F-1 visa is the most popular visa for studying in the USA. It is for students planning to do full-time courses from a recognized university in the USA.

J-1 Visa

The J-1 visa is offered to those who are participating in the Exchange Visitor Program in the USA. It is a short-term visa.

M-1 Visa

The M-1 visa is offered to the students who are participating in Vocational or non-academic study programs.

USA

WHY DO STUDENTS CHOOSE THE USA?

For higher education, students have been overwhelmingly choosing the United States. America is home to some of the best institutions in the world, drawing students from all over the globe. The following are some of the main reasons why people choose to study in the United States:

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Internships are easily obtained by students attending US colleges and universities.
- Professors at universities also give their students sound counselling and insightful advice.
- Career fairs and seminars are held to facilitate networking for students.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

- The US government permits those with a degree to work in the country for a year.
- For this, one may seek for an Employment Authorization for Optional Practical Training (OPT).
- The same employer that hired you for OPT may also consider hiring you on a full-time basis.

COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

- Admission to US universities is highly competitive, typically reserved for top-performing students.
- Once admitted, students gain valuable instruction from experienced and trained faculties.

FLEXIBLE EDUCATION SYSTEM

- In contrast to India, the US education system is incredibly flexible.
- Completing coursework that is unrelated to your field of expertise is not mandatory.
- In the United States, several courses are offered more than once, allowing you a greater choice when it comes to classes.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- The majority of US institutions provide loans, grants, and stipends to assist students.
- In the USA, Indian students can apply for numerous scholarships.
- Students who demonstrate merit are also awarded university assistantships.

CULTURAL DIVERSITY

- The United States has become a centre of cultural diversity due to the migration of people from other nations
- This brings an opportunity to interact with people from different backgrounds.

USA

TYPES OF INSTITUTIONS IN THE USA

There are different types of institutions in the USA which are as under :

PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES

- There is a public university and a public college in every state in the USA.
- The state provides funding for these institutions and universities.
- These colleges provide undergraduate, graduate, and doctorate programs.

PRIVATE UNIVERSITIES

- Private companies and groups manage these universities.
- These universities charge higher tuition fees than community colleges and state universities.

COMMUNITY COLLEGES

- Students with a high school diploma and a GED can enrol in community colleges for a discounted tuition fee.
- Academic, technical, and vocational degrees are available from these colleges.
- They grant associate's degrees in two years.
- Many community colleges enable their students to complete their first two years there and their last two years at a nearby four-year school or university by using automatic enrolment arrangements. We refer to these programs as 2+2 programs.

IVY LEAGUES

- The most prestigious and established universities in America are the Ivy League. As a result, students wishing to study in the USA favour them.
- These institutions have the highest tuition costs in the USA.
- Harvard University, Cornell University, Columbia University, Princeton University, and other universities are among those included in the IVY Leagues.

TYPES OF DEGREES OFFERED

The USA offers different types of qualifications which are as follows :

ASSOCIATE DEGREE

- In the United States, community colleges grant associate's degrees to students who have completed their 12th grade.
- Students can apply to US universities and study for two additional years to earn a bachelor's degree after earning an associate's degree.

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

- Students can enrol for Undergraduate Study Programs in US colleges or universities.
- The duration of this degree is generally 4 years.

MASTER'S DEGREE

- Programs for postgraduate degrees last for two to three years. You obtain a master's degree upon finishing this.
- International students who want to apply for a Master's degree in the USA need to appear for the GRE or GMAT.

DOCTORAL DEGREE

- In the United States, the highest degree available is a Doctorate or Ph.D.
- The advisor for the degree is a faculty member. The degree is granted upon the completion of the thesis satisfactorily and its defence in front of a faculty panel.
- This degree takes 5-8 years to complete.

TYPES OF INSTITUTIONS IN AUSTRALIA

Australia is known for its world-class education system and is a very popular destination among international students. The country has a very well-established education which has various types of institutions which are as follows:

UNIVERSITIES

- Australia is home to 43 universities which is its unique strength and advantage.
- The Group of Eight (G08) which includes the top universities of Australia is renowned for research-related programs.
- These universities offer undergraduate and postgraduate programs in various fields like science, arts, business and technology.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION & TRAINING (VET) INSTITUTIONS

- Through its VET institutions, Australia places a strong emphasis on practical skills.
- The TAFE (Technical and Further Education) colleges at these institutes train students for specialised fields and careers.
- Healthcare, automotive, trades, and other fields are covered in VET courses.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SCHOOLS

- Numerous English language institutions in Australia assist foreign students in improving their language proficiency.
- The goal of these schools is to help students achieve academic success by offering a wide range of language courses.
- Additionally, they facilitate students' linguistic and cultural immersion by enhancing their communication abilities.

COLLEGES AND SPECIALIZED INSTITUTES

- Australia is home to a wide range of colleges and other specialised institutions that concentrate on particular fields and sectors.
- These universities provide courses in business, technology, design, and arts.
- This diversity enables international students to explore specialised topics and build expertise in their respective fields.

TYPES OF DEGREES OFFERED

The Australian education system has a good reputation due to the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF). This is a national policy which was introduced in 1995. Let's understand the basic types of degrees offered in Australia.

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

- Australia offers bachelor's degree programs in several subjects for international students.
- These programs provide flexible major, minor, and specialisation options, with a duration ranging from three to four years.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATES AND DIPLOMAS

- Graduate certificates and diplomas are offered by Australian Universities to individuals who intend to specialise in a particular field of study.
- These are short-term programs, lasting anything from six months to a year.
- The curriculum of these programs is concentrated, assisting students in becoming experts in their subject.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- The vocational courses offered by Australia's education system enable students to secure employment.
- The main emphasis of these courses is on industry-specific skills and practical learning.
- Popular fields covered by VET courses include business, manufacturing, sports, music, art, and tourism.

PATHWAY PROGRAMS

- Pathway programs offer foundation courses and English language programs.
- The purpose of these programs is to help overseas students adjust to the Australian educational system.
- They give students the fundamental intellectual and language abilities they need to be ready for their chosen degree programs.

POSTGRADUATE STUDY

- Post-graduate courses are offered in a variety of subjects by Australian universities and private institutes.
- Strong academic credentials and fluency in English are prerequisites for enrollment in this course.
